THE SPECTACULAR OHIO

Flood Stage in June—Lowlands Flooded—Saturday's River Scene of Passing Saw-logs Unprecedented

As predicted in Thursday's LEDGER the river passed the 40 foot stage Saturday night and continued to rise slowly until yesterday evening when it reached its highest point 40.7 feet, the second time in 47 years that the Ohio has gone on a rampage in June, the other record breaker for the month was June 16th, 1858.

With two floods in one year and the present high water, it seems that the Ohio is this year trying to rival the weather in freak conditions.

The damage done on this rise has been enormous and falls heavily on those who can least afford it—the small farmer who tills the lowlands and the truck gardener whose growing crops have been destroyed.

Saturday afternoon the river presented one of the greatest sights ever seen by people living along its border, it was the passing of 175,000 sawlogs, broken loose from West Virginia tributaries where they were held in booms awaiting to be rafted and floated down the river to Cincinnati.

At one time during their passage, notwithstanding the river is over a half-mile wide, they were so thick that you could almost have crossed the river by jumping from one log to another.

It is a conservative estimate to place the value of the logs at $500,000.

Mr. Lynn Hoeflich will entertain with a dance at Beechwood Park tonight.

Mr. J. H. Pecor, the oldest shoe merchant in the city, has been very sick for the past two weeks at his home in East Third street. His many friends will be glad to learn that he is improving and will soon be able to return to his place of business.

The dance given Friday night by the Maysville Dancing Club at Beechwood Park was the social event of the season.

Among those present were—Misses Amy Calhoun, Pattie Carr, Elizabeth Barbour, Scottle Worthington, Ethel Rice, Winnie Elgin, May Hord Elgin, Ellen Kirk, Lucy Baldwin, Sallie Milton Hall, Mary Hall, Pittsburgh, Pa., Ellen Shanklin, Maud Berry, Thillie Parker, Miss Bishop, Bertie Tenhes, Hattie Cochran, Bell Mitchell Dudley, Flemingsburg, Sophie Amos, Flemingsburg, Elizabeth Andrews, Flemingsburg, Elizabeth Crelle, Boulder, Montana, Miss Jonett, Winchester, Henrietta and Lillian Poyntz, Frankfort, Margaret Poyntz, Cincinnati, Lillie Waller, Allene Power, Paris, Lida and Rosa Harbeson, Flemingsburg.

WILLSON AND COX

They Swept the State at Saturday's Mass Conventions.

Two Maysville Men Will Be Nominated For Governor and Lieutenant Governor

The County Indorsements For Both Gentlemen Were Practically Unanimous.

"The Man From Maysville" gives place to "The Men From Maysville" and our noted city has the distinguished honor of being the natal location of the Hon. Augustus E. Willson, Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky, and the Hon. William H. Cox, nominee for Lieutenant Governor. A long list of Republicans were named as delegates to Louisville.

That such a coincidence has eventuated is a whole volume of credit to Maysville, and at the proper time every native son of Mason county can very properly anthose and burn a few tons of incense and red fire on the altars of politics.

The slogan is "Rah for Willson and Cox!"

The Republicans of Kentucky held county conventions Saturday in all the counties and the returns indicate a sweeping victory for Hon. A. E. Willson of Louisville for Governor of Kentucky and Hon. W. H. Cox of Maysville for Lieutenant Governor.

They have more than enough instructed votes to assure their nomination next Thursday at the Louisville Convention by acclamation.

Mason, the native county of both Willson and Cox, lead off with a ringing indorsement of each and the 20 delegates will go to Louisville to assist in making their nominations unanimous.

Practically no opposition developed and it was largely a case of county indorsing a favorite son when the delegation was instructed for a candidate other than Willson.

Three candidates other than Willson received instructed votes. Daviess county sent a delegation instructed for E. T. Franks, Collector of Internal Revenue at Owensboro, but this was the only county he landed. W. H. Holt was the leading candidate after Willson and received the instructed vote of three counties. His home county, Montgomery, after a fight in the county convention, sent a Holt delegation. The Willson men made a fight, but were beaten, largely because it was Holt's home. Holt received the instructed vote in Crittenden, Montgomery and Morgan counties, giving him a total of 41 votes.

For Lieutenant Governor W. H. Cox of Maysville seems the probable nominee, almost without opposition.

For Secretary of State Dr. Ben L. Bruner at present a Deputy in the United States Marshall's office at Louisville, leads.

Ed. Farley, Paducah, has a big lead in the race for State Treasurer.

For Attorney-General Judge James Breathitt of Hopkinsville, leads.

The candidacy of William H. Taft for President received much attention, and many of the conventions openly declared in favor of indorsing him in the State Convention. Other counties sent delegates who are known to favor Taft, and also to favor his indorsement by the Convention.

MASON REPUBLICANS

Indorse Roosevelt and Send Instructed Delegates For Willson and Cox

Pursuant to the call, the Republicans of Mason county met at the Courthouse in Maysville, Ky., on Saturday, June 15th, 1907, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention to be held at Louisville, June 19th. W. H. Wadsworth was the Chairman and W. S. Yazell Secretary of the meeting.

On motion, the following resolutions were adopted and list of delegates selected.

1. That we indorse President Theodore Roosevelt and his courageous administration of our National affairs.
2. That we indorse the course of Hon. W. H. Cox as member of the State Senate from this District for the past eight years, and that the delegates chosen by this Convention be, and they are hereby, instructed to vote for him as our candidate for Lieutenant Governor.
3. That said delegates be, and they are further instructed to vote for Hon. A. E. Willson of Louisville, for Governor and Prof. J. G. Crabbe of Ashland for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

EDITOR WATTERSON says frankly that W. J. BRYAN will be defeated if he persists in running again for President, but Mr. WATTERSON says he is ready to follow once more to "a defeat, which, in the nature of things, is tolerably sure to be final." It is further said that this poolroom will be located in the middle of the stream where, it is claimed, neither the state of Tennessee nor the state of Arkansas will have jurisdiction, and the efforts of the Legislators will be set at naught. Attorney General Cates is quoted in the same publication as saying that the jurisdiction of Tennessee extends to the middle of the Mississippi river and that he would afford the Shelby officials every assistance in enforcing the law against gambling.

A BIG HAUL

A Fish Story From Springdale That is the Whole Truth.

Facts are sometimes more exciting than fiction, as note the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trombo, who have been tending their nets for some time with only moderate success, located yesterday morning a missing net, and after considerable trouble got it to the surface.

Then the fun began, and the little johnboat was, after a strenuous time, almost filled with fish of the buffalo variety, excepting one, which was a German carp or leather head.

The total catch was 21, the smallest weighing 7 1/2 pounds and the two largest 30 pounds each, some 250 pounds all told.

Mr. Greenwood Fry was at the landing and purchased the smallest of the catch, and the remainder were immediately shipped to Mr. G. M. Trombo of the Fifth Ward, this city, and exposed for exhibition and sale.

Charlie and his good wife are still somewhat excited, and this is no lie.

C. W. Cole, one of the wealthiest members of the Cincinnati Bar, was found dead in his bed Sunday morning.

At Charleston, W. Va., the Federal Court indicted officials of a lumber company for holding laborers in peonage.

COURT'S DECISION

The Opinion Handed Down in Bankruptcy Proceedings

In deciding the suit of The Tiger Shoe Manufacturing Company's Trustees in bankruptcy vs. S. A. Shanklin, from this county, the Court of Appeals held—

A trustee in bankruptcy may, without any order or direction of the court, proceed by suit to enforce the collection of debts due the bankrupt, and the unpaid subscriptions of the stockholders in a bankrupt corporation, but he cannot maintain an action to recover from a stockholder his individual liability imposed under the double liability statute of this state, without any call having been made therefor by the Board of Directors or by the bankrupt court.

A. B. and A. D. Cole were the Attorneys for appellant, and Worthington & Cochran for appellees.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for anyone that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

OVERTAXED
Hundreds of Maysville Readers Know What It Means

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, sideache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ill. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

A Maysville citizen tells here a certain cure. Mrs. Lizzie Burns, living on the Blue Run Turnpike, West End, Maysville, Ky., says: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1906 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I was troubled with severe spells of backache and kidney complaint which came on every few months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight returns of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
